A BIT OF BLOND EVERY DAY!

Blond Amsterdam was born in 2001 when friends and artists Femque van Geffen and Janneke Dröge started working together in a tiny workshop in the Netherlands with a simple goal in mind: to make people happy. Marrying artistic skill with an exuberant love of fun and colour, they quickly developed their first range of handmade tableware.

Today, Blond Amsterdam designs are recognizable worldwide. The blushing, colourful illustrations and the fun phrases, sometimes just a little cheeky. And from the original Blah Blah Blah series – inspired by friends catching up and putting the world to rights – they have created new designs: snack-oriented gifts; the ever popular unicorn; and seasonal and event-based items for birthdays, weddings or when people just want to show love and affection.

More recently – and for people who may not love pink as much as we do – we've introduced Blond X Noir. More understated than the other ranges, but no less fun and stylish (and even a little naughty!).

From humble beginnings nearly twenty years ago, Blond Amsterdam has now blossomed into a successful and vibrant lifestyle and gifting range. And Femque and Janneke have made many, many people happy!
