KITCHENWARE
SPRING 2020

EMILY BROOKS

Emily Brooks is an award-winning British illustrator, designer and influencer.

Following the success of her colourful stationery, gift and greetings card collections now retailing at John Lewis, Liberty, Waterstones and stores around the world, Emily is thrilled to launch her playful kitchenware range for Spring 2020.

Known for colour-blocking, engagingly playful illustrations and popular social media content, Emily's designs are growing in popularity and fast becoming a favourite for design-led retailers.

Emily started creating colourful products to bring a sense of smile back into her life. Creating a colourful, uplifting brand has not only changed her own outlook, but that of others.

'It's about lifting the spirit of the audience or customer'.

With this ethos at the heart of Emily's vibrant kitchenware collection, it's set to be a refreshing and colourful addition for any retailer.
